

Yo! It's a Scarf!

By Katie Benedict

This yarn comes with my highest recommendations. Be warned, however, that it will require serious personal restraint to actually knit the yarn into some form of a garment rather than just stuff the soft little balls down your pants.

There isn't much to this pattern, but I'll post it for you anyway.

Yo! It's a Scarf!

Required: 3 skeins Louise Harding Grace silk/wool blend; size 7 needles

Cast on 30 stitches

Row 1: knit 1, k2tog, yo, repeat until 1 stitch remaining, knit 1

Row 2: knit all stitches

Row 3: knit 1, yo, k2tog, repeat until 1 stitch remaining, knit 1

Row 4: knit all stitches

Repeat rows 1-4 until you are almost out of yarn. Bind off loosely. Block and wear!
